The Coauthor has prepared a manuscript titled _____, hereinafter referred to as "the Manuscript," which has been submitted to the University for incorporation in Aztlán: A Journal of Chicano Studies, published by the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center Press.

The Author warrants that he or she is the sole owner of the copyright in the Manuscript; that no portion of the copyright to the Manuscript has been assigned previously; that the Manuscript has not been published elsewhere in whole or in part (except as may be set out in a rider signed by the University) either in print or in electronic format; and that it contains no matter that is defamatory, unlawful, invasive of individual privacy, or infringes on any proprietary right or any statutory copyright. The Author shall obtain at his or her own expense any permissions required for material included in the Manuscript.

The Author hereby assigns to the University all his or her copyright, title, and interest in and to the Manuscript.

This assignment applies to the University, its successors and assigns, for and during the existence of the copyright and all renewals and extensions thereof. The University, in turn, grants the Author the right to reprint the Manuscript in any printed book of which the Author is the author or editor, subject to giving proper credit in the book to the original publication of the Manuscript in the journal Aztlán: A Journal of Chicano Studies.

The Author acknowledges that he or she will receive no remuneration or compensation for the rights assigned hereunder. The University agrees to provide to the Author five (5) printed copies of the journal issue in which the Manuscript appears, and additional copies at a reduced rate.

The Author agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the University against any claim, demand, suit, action, proceeding, recovery, or expense of any nature whatsoever arising from any claim of infringement of copyrights or proprietary rights resulting from publication of the Manuscript or claims of libel, obscenity, unlawfulness or invasion of privacy based upon or arising out of any matter or thing contained in the Manuscript as furnished by the Author.
