

CASOS DE JUSTICIA: THE STREET VENDOR MOVEMENT

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 3:00-4:30 PM
Chicano Studies Research Center Library
Haines Hall, Room 144

Casos de Justicia is an exhibition curated by LeighAnna Hidalgo, new media ethnographer and PhD candidate in Chicana and Chicano studies.

The exhibition highlights Black and Latino vendors-turned-activists in Los Angeles's street vendor movement, and features augmented fotonovelas based on a four-year visual ethnographic project Hidalgo conducted in partnership with the East Los Angeles Community Corporation (ELACC). Join us for an introduction to the exhibition and community-based visual research, followed by a panel discussion and performance by entrepreneurs, activists, and scholars. This event is sponsored by the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center. The exhibition is supported by research grants from the Institute of American Cultures and the Tamar Diana Wilson Fund.

Closest visitor self-service parking stations in
UCLA Lot 2 and 3:

<https://transportation.ucla.edu/campus-parking/visitors/pay-station-rates-and-locations>

The exhibition is on view through February 23, 2018

ALIZ
EET
DING
EAST LA COMMUNITY CORPORATION

