

Labor Occupational Safety and Health Program (UCLA-LOSH)

UCLA
Chicano Studies
Research Center

Public Health in Cuba: a Dialogue

OVERVIEW OF CUBAN HEALTH CARE SYSTEM

PETER ORRIS, MD, MPH, FACP, FACOEM,
Cuba Delegation Leader

Professor, University of Illinois School of Public Health, Chicago, IL
Miembro Correspondiente, La Sociedad Cubana de Salud Pública
Collaborator with Cuban Public Health Colleagues for over 30 years

Wednesday, March 6, 2013 - 12 Noon – 1 p.m.
(further dialogue till 1:30 pm)

Room 43-105 CHS
(Center for Health Sciences)

Enter CHS off of Charles Young Drive South (where School of Nursing and Dentistry and Biomed Library are located). Entrance is across from the Botany Building and the Botanical Garden. Take elevator to 4th floor, Rm. 105
<http://maps.ucla.edu/campus/?locid=364>

DIALOGUE WITH PUBLIC HEALTH DELEGATES TO CUBA

- How does the community-based health care system function on the ground?
- Confronting public health challenges: Long-term care, HIV/AIDS, disaster preparedness, worker health and environmental sustainability
- Implications for U.S.: What can we learn from Cuba's experience?

Bring your lunch --- we have cookies

For more information contact
UCLA-LOSH: 310.794.5964
loshinfo@ucla.edu

MARIA ELENA RUIZ, PHD, RN, FNP-BC
Assistant Adjunct Professor,
UCLA School of Nursing

NINA VACCARO, MPH
Executive Director,
Southside Coalition of Community
Health Centers

LINDA DELP, PHD, MPH, Director,
Labor Occupational Safety & Health
Program (UCLA-LOSH)