

UCLA CHICANO STUDIES RESEARCH CENTER

“American” Art and the Legacy of Conquest

Art at California’s Missions in the Global 18th-20th Centuries

November 8, 2019

9:00 am to 6:30 pm

November 9, 2019

10:00 am to 4:30 pm

Korn Convocation Hall, UCLA Anderson School of Management

Critical Mission © 2019
Jennifer Scheper Hughes.

At this gathering, we seek a new engagement with the history of California’s missions, vastly mythologized yet profoundly understudied. Through reconsideration of the missions as both physical sites and foci of interpretation, we will pursue new research that surfaces both Native and Mexican/Mexican-American voices in the history of California and the U.S. Reflecting trends in public history over the last decade, our research will foster more complex, multidimensional public engagements with difficult histories.

Our keynote speakers will be Dr. Yve Chavez, UCSC and Dr. Jorge Cañizares-Esguerra, UT Austin.

Free registration is available through Eventbrite by scanning the QR code, or by visiting eventbrite.com/e/american-art-and-the-legacy-of-conquest-tickets-76168653493

Did you know?
You don't need an app, just point
your camera here!

Parking: Self-service parking is available in lots 2 and 3 ($3 per hour or $13 all day).
<https://transportation.ucla.edu/campus-parking>

This event is made possible by The Terra Foundation for American Art. Presented by the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center, this conference is co-sponsored by Critical Mission Studies, UC Mexico Initiative, and the UCLA Department of Art History. This event is free and open to the public.