Inspired by My Father: A Bracero & Union Organizer

Altar Installation

Sunday, October 27 2013 · 2PM

Join former U.S. Secretary of Labor Hilda L. Solis for an intimate gathering and altar installation dedicated to her father's legacy. As the first Latina to serve in the United States Cabinet, Solis' priorities included expanding access to affordable health care, protecting the environment, and improving the lives of working families. Learn about the inspiration behind her work while discovering this tradition of paying homage to the dead.

Enjoy complimentary pan de muerto and champurrado!

This event is FREE and open to the public.

Friends of LA Plaza Spotlight!

Each month LA Plaza will feature one of our community partners and their amazing work. Enjoy this month's featured organization: Since its founding, the UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center (CSRC) has played a pivotal role in the development of scholarly research on the Chicano-Latino population, which is now the largest minority group and the fastest growing population in the United States. Don't miss their current library exhibition, Sal Castro: Legacy of a Teacher, featuring items from their collection honoring Castro's life and career.
