

Christina Fernandez Prospect

A Pacific Standard Time: LA/LA Participating Gallery Exhibition

September 16–November 22, 2017

Artist's reception: Saturday, September 23, 6–8 pm

Please save the date for the opening of Christina Fernandez's exhibition Prospect, which is part of the Participating Gallery Program of Pacific Standard Time: LA/LA. The exhibition opens September 16 and runs through November 22, 2017. There is a reception for the artist on Saturday, September 23 from 6 to 8 pm. The exhibition will feature two brand new bodies of work. One, titled View from here, explores the trope of the window in several sites of interest to the artist and the other, reflect/project(ion), is a series of collaborative portraits with the artist's former students.

Please do add the opening reception to your calendar.

Christina Fernandez is a Los Angeles-based artist who explores her personal connection with Los Angeles, which is featured as an important backdrop for her subjects and narratives that often address labor, gender, migration, and her Mexican-American identity through text and fabricated photographs depicting mythical and historical figures. She was recently in the group exhibition Golden State at Marianne Boesky Gallery, New York and is currently in the PST: LA/LA exhibition Home—So Different, So Appealing at LACMA.
