laartshow "Fragments from Home refers to the exhibition that will be opening June 2017 at LACMA called Home - So Different, So Appealing. At the LA Art Show we'll have two of the artists that are in the show bringing new work that explores the universal concept of home. Home is one of those words that doesn't need a definition. We know what it means but often as a result, we're not questioning it. Through installation and performance, Ramiro Gomez and Raphael Montañez Ortiz question and challenge the idea of home." - Chon Noriega, UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center
