

IAC Research Grants in Ethnic Studies Information Session

The UCLA Institute of American Cultures (IAC) invites applications for support of research in African American Studies, American Indian Studies, Asian American Studies, and Chicana/o Studies for 2025–2026, as well as proposals on interethnic relations that will increase collaboration between the Centers and/or other campus units. Current UCLA graduate students, faculty, lecturers SOE, and staff are eligible to apply for the IAC Research Grants in Ethnic Studies and for the Shirley Hune Inter-Ethnic/Inter-Racial Studies Award, graduate students are eligible to apply. Join us for the workshop to learn tips and more about the application process!

- Wednesday, February 26, 2025, 12:00– 1:15 PM
- Black Forum (Haines Hall 153)
- RSVP at <https://bit.ly/40Tz6Qe>

To apply, visit
<https://iac.ucla.edu/funding/grants>

Application deadline:
Monday, March 3, 2025

For center contact information, visit iac.ucla.edu/funding/contacts

Hosted by the American Indian Studies Center (AISC), Asian American Studies Center (AASC), Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies (Bunche), and Chicano Studies Research Center (CSRC).